

The attorney general has alerted me to the proposed weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. The weakeing of Indiana'a Telephone Privacy Law will result in immeasurable intrusion in our home by companies with which we have an "established business relationship." This action would require me, as a consmuer, to consider future relationship with the members of the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA). I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law.